Tacoma Community College OBI Society Presents "Black History Week"

Sonia Sanchez, Black poet with an infant's face who attacks the demands of the world with the fury of a sparrow defending her fledglings in the nest, will appear in the Little Theater of TCC at noon, February 9, 1971 and at the McCarver Elementary School Multi-Purpose Center at 7 p.m. on the same date. She is being sponsored by the OBI Society as the featured Black artist during Black History Week.

Sister Sanchez, the author of two books of poetry--Homecoming and We a BadaDDD People--hurls obscenities at things that are obscene and love darts at Black people who are moving to reorganize their control centers/ minds. She writes directly, ignoring metaphors, similes, ambiguity and other poetic devices: yet her songs are very effective. Her presence in the Tacoma area will tend to expand the consciousness of the total community.

HILLTOP RESIDENTS PLAN ACTION ON AREA PROBLEMS AND OPPORTUNITIES

A continuing program of people participation to help Hilltop residents with a variety of problems and opportunities is underway in Tacoma.

An all-day meeting was held to set goals and begin a regular information program to enlist Hilltop residents in community and city activities.

James Walton was elected chairman and Clara Cox co-chairman of the new Minority Concerns Task Force. Otha Holland is secretary. Tom Dixon is chairman of a special committee to define organizational goals and list suggestions for solving them.

Walton, director of the Tacoma Area Urban Coalition, called the organizational meeting.

He reviewed work of the Black Citizens Association, formed after Hilltop violence two years ago and active intermittently since on a need basis.

He emphasized the need for many minority race organizations interesting themselves in welfare, educational and all other community problems.

Tacoma's student bussing program and black criticism of some phases of it were aired. Speakers emphasized that specific complaints be well defined to avoid having their suggestions for change used by all anti-bussing groups for a variety of reasons.

Members of the new Task Force were urged to think of being educators and members of city government.

Meetings will be held Wednesdays at 7:30 a.m. at Freeman's Soul Food Restaurant, 1707 South K Street.

First effort at the meetings will be a discussion of political, educational, welfare, public assistance and housing needs.

WE NEED METHADONE

The drug problem has reached a certain level. It has reached the point, that our Brothers are asking for help. Those who have the habit want to kick it.

What we are asking for is the answer to a very serious problem which is methadone, to help our Brothers kick the heroin habit. We want to help these Brothers because they want to be helped. They have realized the damage herion can do to them.

Some of the Brothers have gone to some places and been refused methadone treatment.

Any information you might have to help, contact or write to the Narcotic Outreach Station, 1704 South K Street, Urban League Office Building, and ask for Alonzo Foote Jr. or Larry Owens. We need your support.

In Deliverance, we believe God for a miracle.

God has placed Sister and Brother Dorris at The Tabernacle located at 15th and K to hold up the blood-stained banner for Christ and to encourage his people to put on God's whole armour--so they may be able to withstand against the Devil.

Souls are being saved, backsliders reclaimed and miracles performed through their minsteries.

Renowned Evangelists are minstering weekly both locally, nationally and internationally.

SOCIAL NEWS

---------From C.E.A.

Have you ever Boogied!! Yeah!!
Well we Boogied into the night
YOU should have been there. The old Elks Temple go down and Cooked.
Mr. & Mrs. Homer Williams was there, Mr. Joe Newman, Mr. & Mrs. Excell Cain, Mr. & Mrs. Bruce Hoeuoff, our old friends Jim Thompson, the nasty sax player, and Larry Ezell, some girls from the Tiki, Sky River, and Stadium High School class of '68. We got down...down..down..

In fact, we got down all week-end!! Starting with a "Seattle-style" after-hours set Friday night with Mrs. Rosa Roy & Mr. Harvey Claybourne Jr. which was the best that Tacoma has seen for some time. The set was drippling with "Class". Mac Thompson, Mac Wallace, and Leon was present to help "get-it-on". We should extend a hand to Rose & Harv for their injection in Tacoma's social sphere. Right on Rose & Harv!!! Walter James & Yolonda tied the knot, Saturday at 5:00.

Sunday, there was a Jazz Set at the Am-vets where everyone had a chance to socialize, and later on, we fell at the Elks, where the boys at Bernie's really got it on. Homer bought the Vibratones & Butterball to end up the evening that was spent with Gabriel and other local rock artists. The cat on the flute in Gabriel was outa' sight towards the end.

Mr. Wendell Jones, Larry Jones, Tom Whitfield, Larry Owens, and Company went to a Sunday night affair at Mr. and Madam Dog and Ronda's on Pacific Avenue where the water-bed was the main attraction with the room getting dusty all the while. Mr. Jones, Defensive End of the St. Louis Cardinals slid back the top of his T-Bird on the freeway and blew his guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Waller away for the week-end. And speaking of James Waller (Commonly known as "Dino")), don't forget the Birthday Party on the 6th of February. Be looking forward to it because "Dino" informs us that he really plans to "Sock-it-to-us." See you there.

NORTHWEST N. A. A. C. P. GROUP ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

James Lee of Portland was elected vice-president, Mrs. Yvonne F. Beatty of Seattle secretary, Mrs. Anne Arnett of Klamath Falls, Oregon assistant secretary, and Mrs. Helen E. Holcomb of Vancouver treasurer.

The group called for economic and political action against fraternal organizations which bar blacks but get special tax and liquor selling privileges and rapped racial discrimination against black athletes.

LAW AND JUSTICE TASK FORCE.. From C.E.A.

The Law and Justice Task Force met Thursday, January 28th, to discuss the up-coming Action Year and various projects that we are involved in. The Department of Institutions have approved the Tacoma Youth Guidance Center, The Chapter at Shelton has been instituted and they are waiting to review our Half-Way House and Group Home Concept. So, it seems as though the Task Force has it's work cut out for the coming year.

One of our main projects will be trying to step up our Community Involvement, although this Task Force is way ahead of other groups in "Hard-Core/Grassroots" participation. We have so many other projects to undertake, that we need to recruit new people, plus urge old members to make the Task Force meetings of top priority.

So please become involved, so that this Task Force can continue to truly represent the total community. Our next meeting is scheduled for the 11th of February, 7:30 p.m. at the Model Cities office.

PS. We had a chance to talk to Terry Johnson, Jerome Wilson, Jerry Smith, and many more of the brothers confined at Shelton when the community went to visit. We hope our friends, Oscar Bonds will be a part of the chapter by our next visit. (See the following article by Jack Wilkens, News Tribune Writer).

McCarver Is Dead--Stanley is Dying
(Chocking Black Child)

Monies originated to up the life styles of the dying people in America is being side tracked.

McCarver 3 years ago was funded to upgrade education in the McCarver community. As soon as the program was operational, the people in that community were denied the chance to be exposed to their schools on the percent base 65-35.

The cracker is pulling the same trick with you Stanley community. There is a multi-million dollar program being built at Stanley, and the Stanley community is being forced out.

Are you gonna let your child get robbed of his chance to the best exposure any school can provide today?

POLITICAL PARTY HOLDS LUNCHON

by Dick Sonntag

City Councilman Harold Moss was introduced as "Our pride and joy" by Bobby White last week at a luncheon given by White to promote his Citizens Political Interest Club. Moss main speaker, made the most intense speech that I have ever heard him make, and I've known him for ten years. He praised White and his organization, and urged all young people to involve themselves with this new club. He predicted that White would soon be a major political power in Tacoma. White praised Moss as an example and urged those present to help register Black people as voters. I have never been more impressed with either Moss or White than I was last week.

White gave out a press release about his Political Club which made a few points and asked a few questions that I feel should be printed in the Facts:

Your Tacoma Citizen's Political Interest Club is not a new concept in civic affairs. Many major cities have clubs such as this to promote community relations and influence governmental actions. Our club intends to go beyond this and take an active role in the coming city elections.

It is our belief that Tacoma should be doing more to create a better business climate. We need new businesses, new industry, and a new attitude in our relations with each other.

We can't see where our present city council, except for one or two of its members, is doing anything to create more jobs and bring an end to the depression type of unemployment that we are experiencing. It also is important that we make the general public aware of our local gover ment-count and city.

Why can't the city council hold meetings in different areas of the city?

Why doesn't the county have more than a "few" Black employees?

When will the Hilltop community have a park?

Tacoma can no longer ignore its growing problem of race relations. This city can no longer afford a double standard of police service. Large cities can do something about substandard housing. If you don't think that these are the problems that build riots and create distrust, then you are misinformed.

Tacoma needs hard talk such as this. I hope that every young person who reads this will contact Mr. White and see what part they can play in the future of Tacoma and also to join a club that is going to work for candidates in the city election. The club worked last year for several candidates, mainly Floyd V. Hicks, Evan "Skip" Davies, Clay Huntington, Don Perry, Ken Johnston, Dick Greco, Lorraine Wojohn, and Booth Gardner.

John Messina, local attorney and active democrat, was another of the luncheon guests. Messina is a "probable" council candidate and has some interesting ideas on how to lesson the tax burden on the little guy. Other luncheon speakers included; Joe Jordan, Mel Conerly, Al Williams, Rev. John Adams, Jim Walton, and me. I praised the food. Guests included Jim Charette, Chairman of the 28th district democrats, Ray Johnson, past 28th Chairman, Jerry McLaughlin of The Facts, and The Facts candidate for Miss America, Sylvia Dupont.

Note: Senator Edward Kennedy has made his first public speech since his defeat by Southern senators for the post of senate majority whip. Kennedy looked and sounded very much like a candidate for President. Maybe, he is frustrated with the senate and would like a new job. It's reported that his mail is helping to turn him into a candidate.

Note: Governor Evans and Attorney General Slade Gorton want to stall off the required state political redistricting. Democrats, led by Martin Durkan, Len Sawyer, Ted Bottiger, and John Cherberg, want the job done in the legislature according to law. At stake is a sixth legislative district for Pierce County which would give us 18 legislators instead of the present 15. With our economic condition, we could use the added influence in Olympia.

Note: A lot of people are talking about running for Mayor and city council this year. Some of these who may run for mayor, include Mayor Gordon Johnston, A. L. Rasmussen, John J. O'Connell, George Cvitanich, Senator Joe Stortini, Councilman John Jarstad, and Senator B oth Gardner. This group includes some young men, and that's good. It also would be nice to see some new, young faces on the council. Men like Herb Simon, Jim Walton, John Messina, and Bobby White, would add a lot to Tacoma city Government. There are seven spots open.

Jim Walton, Ed Taylor, Fay Davis, E. (Bonnie) Gardner. John Messina (with back).

Note: Please support the businesses that advertise in The Facts. When you shop with one of them, tell them that you saw their Ad in The Facts.

Note: With Dan Evans, Martin Durkan, Slade Gorton, John J. O'Connell, Wes Uhlman and others thinking of being Governor in 1972, it should be an interesting campaign. Some local democrats are trying to get Floyd V. Hicks to quit Congress and run. Who do you think would do the best job for you? Let me know in a note, and leave it at The Facts office. Also, put down your choice for Mayor and President. Bobby White will invite your favorite for each office to speak to the Citizens Political Interest Club.

Note: If you are 21 or over, you can be a registered voter. Call FU 3-3311, and ask for the City Clerk for information on how easy it is to register.

Performer "Bonnie" Turns Songwriter

Bonnie as a Songwriter.

Unknown to many, E. (Bonnie) Gardner, is the first Black Female songwriter in the State of Washington. As a performer, Bonnie was formerly known as "Lady Soul". She has written (20) twenty or more songs. Some of those which have been accepted by a national agency are, "When my Love Comes Back", I Can't Count the Stars," "Just With You Baby", "Stop Knocking", and "No Good for No Baby Blues". Negotiations which are now in the making, she hopes with Aretha Franklin, The World's Lady Soul, to record her song, "I Learned How to Love" will be a success. The songwriter has received a letter from James Brown, Mr. Soul, who now has a song Bonnie has written, title, "Tell Me Why." Miss Gardner began entertaining for servicemen at the Tacoma USO in her teenage years. Later, she began performing in local night spots in Seattle, and the Tacoma area. Bonnie now has two contracts from a well known publishing company, and she is also affiliated with Ralph E. Hastings Motion Picture Studios. Bonnie would like to write more later, but as of now, she is looking for more breaks, plus, pursuing a career in Real Estate.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT's GOING IN YOUR COMMUNITY?

I wonder how many people know that the Federal Government is going to put up at Stanley School. At the same time, the school district wants to start a bussing program. If the people of the community who have kids in Stanley School let this happen, your kids will be getting robbed of something that they had coming to them for years.

We, the Black People, must come together to stop all robberies of the community. If you have any interest in your kids education, which is the key to everything today, you will come together and take action before the robbery of your kids education start. What I am trying to say is, we have been letting this robbery of our education do on so long, it is time we got our righteous education that was due to us long ago.

So people of the community, please come together and get it together, before it is too late.

Job Opportunities in the Business Sector

George H. Weyerhaeuser, metropolitan chairman of the National Alliance of Businessmen (NAB) in Tacoma, has announced that five new loaned executives are now serving in the NAB office in the Winthrop Hotel.

The NAB program, a non-profit, voluntary businessman's organization with programs operating in 200 cities throughout the United States, was formed in 1968 at the request of President Johnson to aid in providing job opportunities for the hard-core unemployed.

In the Job Opportunities in the Business Sector (JOBS) Program which resulted, loaned executives from all areas of industry and government form the backbone of the NAB partnership through which the disadvantaged are recruited for jobs that pay well, are trained on the job and helped to keep working permanently.

Private business, through the efforts of the loaned executives, provides the jobs. Government locates and recruits the disadvantaged and, when provided under the JOBS contract, repays business for necessary training and related expenses.

The five new loaned executives are: Mark T. Beales, Mortgage loan department, Pacific First Federal Savings & Loan; Angelo Brucas, personnel supervisor, Nalley's Fine Foods; Richard H. Byington, Sr., administrator of MCEO Consortium; Philip W. Pascoe, management trainee, Seattle-First National Bank and Ed Ploff, installation foreman, Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Company. Each of these men will serve fulltime with the NAB office for three months.

In addition, William Wade, marketing representative for Pacific National Bank of Washington is beginning his second three month term and Ralph M. Snider, director of education for United Pacific Insurance Group, will be working through February.

Thus far, 75 Tacoma area firms have hired more than 325 disadvantaged persons, with nearly 300 remaining on the job. Another 88 local firms have made pledges to hire in 1971. The goal for the Tacoma NAB is to have 450 disadvantaged persons working by June 30, 1971.

John F. Ketter, urban affairs manager for Weyerhaeuser Company, is serving as Tacoma Area Metropolitan Chairman for the NAB program.

U.S. Civil Rights Commission To Reconsider The Geious Mistake Of Closing 235 Program

WASHINGTON, D.C. --The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights characterized as "a serious mistake" the recent suspension by HUD Secretary George Romney of part of the federally subsidized program of home ownership for lower-income families.

In a January 20 letter to the Secretary, released today, the Commission's Chairman, Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, said that suspension of the program, called Section 235, "will have the effect of denying to many lower-income families the opportunity to obtain decent housing and to live in dignity..." and urged Romney to reconsider his decision. Father Hesburgh termed the suspension "ill-advised," contending that the net effect on the poor will be "to frustrate their legitimate hopes and expectations."

The Commission has been conducting a study of the impact of the Section 235 program and it is on the basis of a preliminary analysis of the data that the Chairman wrote to Secretary Romney. A recent report by the House Banking and Currency Committee disclosed abuses such as speculation, inflated FHA appraisals, and approval of substandard housing, in the operation of the existing housing aspect of the program. Father Hesburgh agreed that these abuses exist. He asserted, however, that the same abuses have been found with respect to nonsubsidized home ownership programs. "Nonetheless," he underscored, "the suspension applies only to the 235 program."

The Commission pointed out that since minority families are benefiting from the program primarily through the purchase of existing housing, the burden of the action suspending only this part of the program falls with disproportionate severity on minority families. The Commission also contended that despite the abuses the great majority of families have substantially improved the quality of houses in which they live, and are enjoying for the first time the benefits--both material and psychological--of home ownership.

The Commission argued, however, against suspending operation of the program pending completion of the investigation. "In our view," the Commission said, "the more constructive course would be to augment the staff assigned to monitor the operation of the program and to take other steps necessary to assure against abuses, while continuing the program."

Chairman Hesburgh took the unusual step of polling each of the five other Commissioners before writing to Secretary Romney. In his letter Father Hesburgh emphasized that "all of the Commissioners share the conviction that the decision to suspend the operation of the Section 235 program...was ill-advised," and that "the Commission is unanimous in urging you to reconsider that decision."

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights is an independent, bipartisan, fact finding agency created by Congress in 1957. Other commissioners are Stephen Horn, vice chairman, Frankie M. Freeman, Maurice B. Mitchell, Robert S. Rankin, and Manuel Ruiz Jr.. Howard A. Glickstein is staff director.
